Upper Canada | Barreau
du Haut-Canada

The Women's Law Association of Ontario and The Law Society of Upper Canada are pleased to host a symposium that will feature a panel of successful and influential women lawyers who will share their experiences from diverse areas of legal practice and work environments. A panel of leading women lawyers will offer tips for success in different practice settings, and guide you to avenues to advance your legal career. You will also discover effective ways to overcome the challenges unique to women lawyers whether it is navigating through the politics of a large law firm, building and maintaining your networks, or marketing yourself in a competitive environment.

A light meal will be provided.

WLAO Members/Students $36.75 and Non-members $47.25
(prices include GST)
