Managing Your Law Practice and Legal Career: The Business Case
for Mentoring

The panel discussion will feature speakers from various practice perspectives who will share their experiences and insights on the importance of mentoring. You will hear meaningful advice on how to find the right mentors and develop strong mentoring relationships. Hear real life examples of how mentoring has helped lawyers enhance their practice skills and avoid many of the common pitfalls in legal practice.

Black History Month Reception – Convocation Hall

Members of the legal profession and the public are invited to attend a reception to celebrate Black History Month, featuring The Honourable Margaret Best, Ontario's Minister of Health Promotion. Lawyer, advocate, mentor and dedicated community volunteer, Margaret Best is the recipient of the African Canadian Achievement Award in 2006.

An assortment of hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will be served.
