

Pride Week 2009

The Stonewall Riots - 40 Years Later: Politics and the Future of Equality for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Trans-Identified People (LGBT)

The Law Society of Upper Canada in partnership with the Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Section of the Ontario Bar Association is proud to present the annual Pride Week forum and reception.

Date: June 23, 2009

Place: The Law Society of Upper Canada
130 Queen St. West, Toronto
(enter eastside doors facing Nathan Phillips Square)

Time: Panel Discussion – 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
(Donald Lamont Learning Centre, Main floor)

Reception – 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
(Convocation Hall, Second floor)

The Stonewall Riots in the summer of 1969 marked a turning point in the struggle for LGBT equality, giving rise to a number of social movements and political activism that have shaped, and continue to shape the evolution of rights for LGBT people throughout the world. A panel of legal and political experts will discuss contemporary issues in law and politics and assess the future of equality for LGBT communities. Following the panel discussion the Law Society and the Ontario Bar Association will host their annual reception at Osgoode Hall to celebrate Pride Week. Members of the legal profession and public are welcome to attend both events.
