PRIDE WEEK 2008 LAW FORUM

THE LEGAL REGULATION OF BEHAVIOUR AND EXPRESSION

The Law Society of Upper Canada and the Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Section of the Ontario Bar Association are pleased to present a panel discussion on contemporary legal issues affecting the lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities. Members of the legal community and the public are invited to attend.

Tuesday, June 24, 2008, 4:00 P.M. – The Law Society of Upper Canada, 130 Queen St. West

Within the last two decades, there have been a number of significant legal developments that are affecting the lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) communities in Canada. How has the law evolved to reflect changing values in society? How has the law regulated the behaviours and expressions of gay, lesbian, bisexual and gender identities, both in the public and private spheres?

A panel of legal experts and human rights advocates will discuss contemporary legal issues affecting members of LGBT communities, such as age of consent laws, criminal law and sexual health, obscenity laws, and other restrictions on freedom of expression, both domestically and internationally.
