

Law Week 2010 Great Debate: How far is too far?

This year's Great Debate will examine the balance of human dignity, security and privacy in relation to human body scanners in airports and increased security measures in schools.

The Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN) and The Law Society of Upper Canada are pleased to present this annual Law Week event, where lawyers, educators and academics meet to discuss the issues affecting Canadians.

A networking reception will follow the debate. Light refreshments and snacks will be served.

Date: Tuesday April 13, 2010

Debate: 5:30 – 7 p.m.

Reception: 7 – 8 p.m.

Location: The Law Society of Upper Canada
Convocation Hall
