

Perspectives on Co-Management:
Creating Partnerships between the
First Nations and Métis Communities

Friday, November 16, 2007 4:00 P.M. – 6:00 P.M.

Location: The Law Society of Upper Canada
Convocation Hall
130 Queen St. West, Toronto (enter at east doors)

The panelists will provide the Métis and First Nations perspectives on negotiating and managing co-management agreements with the federal and Ontario governments. Co-management covers not only financial administration but also natural resource management, the key to the future of Aboriginal economic development within Ontario. Panelists will also provide an update of recent significant legal decisions affecting the Métis community.

Confirmed Speakers:

Tony Belcourt, President, Métis Nation of Ontario
John Beaucage, Grand Council Chief, Anishnabek Nation
Jean Teillet, Pape Salter Teillet

A reception in honour of Louis Riel Day will be held in Convocation Hall at 6:00 p.m. at the Law Society featuring an art exhibit by Métis artists.

Members of the legal profession and the public are invited to attend the panel discussion and the reception.
